HARPER'S TAVERN

CASUAL DINING AT ITS FINEST • ESTABLISHED IN 1804

For over two hundred years, Harper's Tavern has stood at the intersection of present-day Route 934 and Old Jonestown Road, near the confluence of the Swatara & Indiantown Creeks. Early on, the tavern provided weary travelers with a place to spend the night and enjoy a hearty meal, as well as a strong drink. In more recent times, it has become known as a fine eating establishment, catering to people from the Harrisburg/Lebanon area and all points beyond. The tavern and the area surrounding it both have a long and interesting history, one that begins as early as the 1740's.

Adam Harper was one of the first people to settle in Hanover Township, in the northern tier of what was then Lancaster County, just a few miles south of Blue Mountain. At the age of 21, he came to Philadelphia in 1743 as an immigrant from Frankfurt, Germany. He was one of the 81 adult males on the vessel, "Phoenix" who signed the required oath of allegiance to George II. Adam purchased land at the junction of the Swatara and Indiantown Creeks in 1761, and the plantation became known as the "Harper Homestead". He and his wife, Catherina, raised 10 children and eventually sold 100 acres of the original property.

The first tavern on this spot was built as early as 1730- it was built by Adam "Squire" Reed, the local dignitary. One early account says the tavern was built near an Indian Village and was "surrounded by wigwams". Squire Reed's house, located about half mile from the tavern, was referred to as Fort Reed, according to a noted historical marker along Rt. 22. The "fort" saved many local farmers from the Indians.

The dimensions of John Harper's (Adam's son) original building, circa 1804 compromise the present bar area and the one dining hall with it's fireplaces, informally known as The Library. The two doors at the front of the building provided entrance for men to the bar, and the women to the dining room, or lounge.

Continuing its legacy, Harper's Tavern is currently locally owned & operated by Joey Straw, since 2004. It operates as a full-service bar and casual fine restaurant.

Harper's Tavern offers wonderful daily lunch and dinner specials. Enjoy Prime Rib and a feature seafood entree every Friday and Saturday. For dessert lovers, we offer a delicious selection, including Joey's famous homemade peanut butter silk pie.

Our dining rooms can comfortably accommodate up to 110 guests. The entire premise is a non-smoking facility, however, smoking is permitted outside.
